Agreement and legal obligation

This may include other Swedish legislation, such as the Accounting Act and the Privacy Act, which requires us to process personal data.

Legitimate interest

In some cases, Swedish Maintenance has a so-called legitimate interest. It may be that:

- Market us as an organization for people who have not been in contact with us before
- Implement segmentation or profiling of people who are already customers
- Improve and analyze how our social platforms work
- Process your information in order to fulfill orders
- Perform market research and analysis
- Communicate changes in our terms and policy documents

Consent

In the cases where you have given your consent, you are always entitled to recall this at any time by contacting us.

Your rights

You can at any time, at no cost, get information about the personal information about you that we have saved. If any information is incorrect, please ask us to change your personal information. You may also ask us to destroy or disidentify your personal information. You also have the right to have your personal data transferred to another person responsible for personal data, such as data portability. You may also ask us to limit the processing of your personal data or object to SVUH's personal data processing.

Request for change, limitation, objection, deletion, data portability, considerations, complaints and suggestions regarding data security should be sent to: WCM Consulting AB, Lotsgatan 1, 18534 Vaxhol, or by e-mail to: info@wcm.nu. You also have the right and opportunity to appeal complaints to the Data Inspectorate <http://www.datainspektionen.se/om-oss/kontakta-oss/> regarding the handling of your personal information.
